I was in a pub on Saturday night. Had a few....
I noticed two large women by the bar.
They both had strong accents so I asked, "Hey, are you two ladies from Scotland ?"
One of them chirped: "It's WALES you friggin' idiot!"
So, I immediately apologized and said..., "Sorry, are you two whales from Scotland ?"
Then the lights went out....

PROPERTY

As you are aware there have been some renovations and maintenance completed in the upstairs hall and other parts of the building:

- Kitchen – work on the florescent lights and the island has been completed; a new window has been ordered and will be installed
- Hall – smoke-eaters have been removed; holes repaired, painting done with volunteers Paul Dennison, Les Virtue, Randy Schultz, Kathy Eastwood & Kenny; special thanks to Martins Home Hardware for the discount received on the paint and new wall sconces
- Lock on main hall door has been fixed – thanks to Bob Harrison
- Workshop is being tidied with some items donated to the L/A yard sale
- Annual Fire & Safety Inspection is done with a few batteries replaced for emergency lights
- Back door has been prepped and will be painted
- New electrical wall switches will be replaced with the assistance of Gord Kelly

Thanks to everyone who assisted in any manner to help with the make-over of the upstairs hall and it looks GREAT!

You've Got Blond

A man was in his front yard mowing grass when his attractive blond neighbour came out of the house and went straight to the mailbox. She opened it then slammed it shut and stormed back into the house. A little later she came out of her house again, went to the mailbox and opened it, and slammed it shut again. Angrily, back into the house she went.

As the man was getting ready to edge the lawn, she came out again, marched to the mailbox, opened it and then slammed it closed harder than ever. Puzzled by her actions the man asked her "Is something wrong?"

To which she replied, "There certainly is!" "My stupid computer keeps saying "You've got mail!"

BLUEWATER VETERANS HIGHWAY DEDICATION

Bluewater Veterans Highway Expands

Port Elgin – John Divinski

Lambton, Huron, Bruce and Grey Counties can boast the longest stretch of highway to be renamed Bluewater Veterans Highway.

A dedication ceremony was held Tuesday, June 26th at the Port Elgin Cenotaph re-naming Highway 21 from Sarnia to Owen Sound as the Bluewater Veterans Highway.

The stretch is 257 kilometers long. By comparison the Highway of Heroes from Trenton to Toronto, along the 401, is 172 kilometers long.

A small crowd of Legion members and spectators were on hand to take part in the dedication.

President of Branch 340, Royal Canadian Legion in Port Elgin, Kathryn Eastwood, says the special signs were being erected as the dedication ceremony unfolded.

Signs are placed in Springmount, Saugeen First Nation, between Southampton and Port Elgin and north of Kincardine.

Eastwood says she can't describe the pride she feels when she sees the signs. She says it's a small way to show gratitude for those who answered the call.

Royal Canadian Legion Ontario Provincial Command Vice-President Brian Smith says the dedication is one of the most important things that can be done. He says it not only recognizes those that have gone before but those that currently serving around the world.

Smith says it's only fitting that this stretch of highway from Sarnia to Owen Sound is the longest stretch dedicated to the Bluewater Veterans Highway in the province.

Saugeen Shores Special Projects Manager Mike Myatt says it's a year of work that has come to fruition. Myatt says it's a proud moment for the Legions in the area and throughout the province.

THE LAWS OF GOLF

LAW 1: No matter how bad your last shot was, the worst is yet to come. This law does not expire on the 18th hole, since it has the supernatural tendency to extend over the course of a tournament, a summer and, eventually, a lifetime.

LAW 2: Your best round of golf will be followed almost immediately by your worst round ever. The probability of the latter increases with the number of people you tell about the former.

LAW 3: Brand new golf balls are water-magnetic. Though this cannot be proven in the lab, it is a known fact that the more expensive the golf ball, the greater its attraction to water.

LAW 4: Golf balls never bounce off of trees back into play. If one does, the tree is breaking a law of the universe and should be cut down.

LAW 5: No matter what causes a golfer to muff a shot, all his playing partners must solemnly chant "You looked up," or invoke the wrath of the universe.

LAW 6: The higher a golfer's handicap, the more qualified he deems himself as an instructor.

LAW 7: Every par-three hole in the world has a secret desire to humiliate golfers. The shorter the hole, the greater its desire.

LAW 8: Topping a 3-iron is the most painful torture known to man.

LAW 9: Maple trees eat golf balls.

LAW 10: Sand is alive. If it isn't, how do you explain the way it works against you?
